

Newsletter No 7: December 2025

Welcome to our charity newsletter which aims to give those who support Fulfilling Futures more information about the work that is being carried out as well as community news. Florence Lakemba, our sponsorship co-ordinator, is responsible for creating these newsletters which we aim to send out on a trimestral basis.

Thank you so much for your ongoing support and donations.

Award of certificates to band members

Congratulations to children in bronze band who were awarded with certificates after the successful completion of the music assessment. Three children were given gifts in addition to the certificates.

AFIRD

The Agency For Integrated Rural Development (AFIRD) worked with Archbishop Kiwanuka primary school to promote urban farming. Children and teachers learnt to practice agriculture on small pieces of land.

Distribution of toothbrushes and toothpaste

Toothpaste and tooth brushes were donated to children at St. John Leonard primary school from Colgate Company. Children learnt new practices of good oral hygiene.

Christmas carols and top class graduation

As the year came to an end, children at Archbishop Kiwanuka primary school had Christmas carols. Parents and guardians were invited for this special event. In addition to that, learners in top class were able to graduate to primary school on that same day.

Dedication mass for primary seven candidates

Year Seven students from both schools participated in a church mass to mark the start of their final examination period.

Study tours

Children at both schools made trips to different places on different dates. At Archbishop Kiwanuka Primary school, they visited Kasubi Tombs, Freedom City and the parliament while at St. John Leonard primary school, they toured Kajjansi airfield, a bread factory and Freedom City.

Christmas party 2025

Children at St. John Leonard primary school had a blast as they celebrated their Christmas party. They danced, ate and drank. Children in top class graduated to primary school on this same day. Thank you for all the donations made towards this event.

Year seven leavers' parties

Primary seven candidates at both schools had leavers' parties. However, at St. John Leonard primary school, it was celebrated in the school premises while at Archbishop Kiwanuka primary school the party was held from an outside venue.

Teachers' party at Archbishop's

Teachers at Archbishop Kiwanuka primary school closed off term three with an end of year party. They engaged in different activities such as dancing, gift-sharing, eating and drinking in order to promote team bonding.

Lastly, at the most recent Trustees meeting in October, Fulfilling Futures have recently agreed to fund Archbishop Kiwanuka School with purchasing 4 water tanks plus some sewing machines. Similarly at St John Leonard's school their bids for funding, means that they are now able to purchase 207 mosquito nets, 17 new bunk beds, and fund latrine repairs (for doors) and to the generator.

Fulfilling Futures is proud that we are able to continue to support children to attend school and to assist with bursaries for leavers who wish to enter higher education.

In November, all year seven children in Uganda sat for their final examinations (Primary Leaving Examinations). We wish them the very best.
